SCOPE AND CONTENT:

Goodyear Aircraft Corporation (GAC) employee Milton R. Morse came up with the idea for a hobby center for seniors and began soliciting members in 1957. Later that year, W.G. Krumroy, president and treasurer of the Krumroy Realty Co., renovated and donated space on the first floor of the Krumroy Building at 227 W. Exchange Street to be used for such a center. The Constitution and By-Laws of the Senior Citizens of Summit County, Inc., Krumroy Unit No., 1 and Hobby House were adopted on April 8, 1958. The center moved into the basement of the Metropolitan Housing Authority's new senior citizens' apartments, Pine Crest Apartment, at 414 Pine Street in 1963. It was operated by United Way until 1970, when it became independent and adopted new bylaws. The center remained open until June 30, 1997.

The collection primarily consists of photographs of individual members and events and clippings from The Akron Beacon Journal and GAC's The Wingfoot Clan. It also includes: the group's constitution and by-laws adopted April 8, 1958; board and membership meeting minutes, Dec. 1989-May 1997 (incomplete); committee and membership lists, 1958-1997 (incomplete); an oversized charter signed by charter members in 1971; newsletters and newsletter excerpts; meeting and event reminders, invitations and fliers; ticket stubs from four Cleveland Indians games attended by members of the group from 1959-1962; and a pass to the 1961 Summit County Fair. The materials range in date from 1957 to 1997.

ARRANGEMENT: By type of material and chronologically.

INVENTORY:

SERIES 1: PHOTOGRAPHS (4 boxes)

DESCRIPTIVE NOTE:

With the exception of the oversized 1971 Charter, the entire collection came to Special Collections arranged into five, three-ring magnetic photo albums. Prior to being in these albums, some items were apparently taped or pasted into a scrapbook and now have some damage and/or adhesive marks from being removed from the original scrapbook(s) and/or from the magnetic albums.

Most of the photographs that have been identified were labeled on the back in pen or marker prior to their donation. Some photographs that were not labeled on the back were identified by small typed labels that appeared with them in the albums. These identified but unlabeled photographs have been placed into envelopes, which have been labeled using the information that appeared on the accompanying typed labels.

Photographs of 15 board members that were arranged in the albums separately from the photographs of the general membership have been alphabetically interfiled with the photographs of the general membership in Boxes 1 and 2 in order to make it easier to find the individuals. A list of these board members appears in the Manuscripts Box, Folder 3, with other "Membership, Board of Directors, and Officers Lists."
