

FRED W. ALBRECHT GROCERY
ACME MAN RADIO SCRIPTS
1944-1958

Special Collections, Akron-Summit County Public Library

ACCESSION #: 2002-10

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS NO: 10

VOLUME: 2 storage boxes, 1 linear foot.

ACCESS: Restricted access: materials fragile; access by request at Main Library archives only: material does not circulate.

SCOPE AND CONTENT: Mimeographed scripts used in the Acme Man radio programs that were heard on stations WADC, WHKK and WAKR in Akron. Also included is an index. Fred C. Pockrandt, Alvin Gravesmuehl, and Robert Thomas alternated as the Acme Man. The program, which was about five minutes long, provided information about merchandise, manufacturers, and gave recipes. (Source: The Highest Point: a centennial history of the Fred W. Albrecht Grocery Store, by Priscilla M. Harding.) Each script is marked with the date the script was recorded and the date the program aired. Some scripts also indicate the radio station, or stations, at that aired the program. Also included is an index, which lists the titles of the scripts alphabetically. Author is unknown.

ARRANGEMENT: Scripts are arranged chronologically.

INVENTORY:

TWO STORAGE BOXES, SIZE 15 x 12 x 10 (inches):

BOX 1: 1944-1951, and index.

BOX 2: 1952-58.