

SOUNDS OF THE CITY – AKRON
Special Collections, Akron – Summit County Public Library

ACCESSION #: 2002-1

ACQUISITION: This material was donated as a gift from Kitty G. Brown, 1998.

ACCESS: Restricted access: materials fragile; access by request at Main Library archives only; material does not circulate.

VOLUME: 1 manuscript box, .5 LF.

SCOPE AND CONTENT: Sounds of the City was produced in the spring of 1952 as a project of the Radio Workshop of the Junior League of Akron. The script was written by Kitty G. Brown and edited by Ralph S. Brown. The program first aired on July 4th, 1952 on station WCUE.

ARRANGEMENT: Original order.

CONTAINER LIST:

ONE FOLDER: Contains a letter from Kitty G. Brown detailing the history of the tape, a list of where the sounds were recorded, and comments about how these places and sounds have changed in 1997.

ONE MASTER AUDIO CASSETTE: Provided by Kitty G. Brown.

ONE MASTER BETA CAM TAPE: Copy provided by WVIZ TV Channel 25 in Cleveland.